Parents, legal guardians of minors, and adult students waive the right to any legal action for any injury sustained on school property resulting from normal lessons/class activities or any other activity conducted by the students before, during or after lesson activity time. Pictures of students in class activities may be used for classes, brochures, collages, in-studio display, studio website, press releases and marketing materials.

There are no makeup classes for the summer group classes. This rule excludes private lessons which fall under the guidelines set in the Major Scales Studio Policy.

Full refund is available up to one week prior to start date. One half of payment is refundable one week prior to start date. Once a class has begun no refunds will be granted.

In the case of insufficient enrollment in a group class we reserve the right to cancel the class. If this happens, you may roll over your funds to another class or a refund will be given to for that class.

Private lesson payment schedule is based on the Major Scales Studios Policy. I understand this policy.
